SUBJECT: PHILLIP BART
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

DATE: November 8, 1951

On November 2, 1951, [] furnished a signed statement to Special Agent ROBERT J. FAIR concerning his membership and activities in the Communist Party in late 1944 and early 1945 in Springfield, Illinois. [] stated he would be willing to testify to any of the information furnished by him. The pertinent part of this statement concerning the captioned subject is as follows:

b6
b7C

"I met Phil Bart, a Communist organizer, at the Modern Book Store in Springfield. He was apparently superior to both Arthur Haendle and Lester Wickstrom in the Communist organization. I recall that he urged me to start a newspaper in Harrisburg, Illinois, but I refused because it was apparent that Bart intended to have complete control of the paper."

It is noted that the Modern Book Store was the Communist Party literature outlet in Springfield and that ARTHUR HAENDLE and LESTER WICKSTROM were Communist Party organizers.

This is being furnished for your information.

Rerep Special Agent JOHN J. KEARNEY dated October 16, 1951, at New York City, N. Y.

On page 25 of referenced report, information is set out that subject advised the Probation Officer of United States District Court, Washington, D. C., that he had a sister by the name of ROSE presently residing in San Francisco.

Special Employee [] checked the records of the San Francisco Retail Credit Association under the name of ROSE BERAL, with negative results. The employee also checked the records of the San Francisco Police Department under said name without effect.

ANN JOHNSON, Secretary, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, San Francisco, checked the records of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company for a record of gas or electrical power being supplied to an individual under the name of ROSE BERAL without effect.

Special Agent [] checked the city directories from 1940 through the present date for the name of ROSE BERAL without effect. The San Francisco Telephone Directory fails to list an individual by said name.

It is recommended that the New York Office endeavor to ascertain the last name of subject's alleged sister residing in San Francisco.

Confidential Informants of known reliability, SF 613, 1425 and SF 1605, all close to activities at San Francisco Party Headquarters, have been alerted.

INTERNAL SECURITY - C
SMITH ACT OF 1940

The Newark Office, by letter dated 9/22/51, furnished information received through interview of ALEXANDER WROUGHT, 528 Landis Avenue, Vineland, New Jersey. WROUGHT advised that he formerly knew BART well and first became acquainted with him in Cincinnati, Ohio, in approximately 1930, at which time BART was District Organizer of the CP in Cincinnati.

Included among the information furnished by WROUGHT was the fact that BART told him he had enlisted in the National Guard on orders of the CP and attended a two-week encampment. BART allegedly enjoyed the good food and other good living conditions at camp. While at camp the CP contacted him and directed him to distribute leaflets complaining about the treatment of officers, the poor food and living conditions, etc. As the propaganda was untrue, BART did not distribute the leaflets. However, at the insistence of the CP, BART attempted to agitate the men by complaining that they had to engage in military training.

The Cincinnati Office is requested to attempt, at Columbus, Ohio, to verify BART'S service with the Ohio National Guard and review his personnel file for all pertinent information.

WROUGHT also furnished the names of other individuals whom he believed could furnish information relative to BART'S CP activities in Cleveland. These persons included one BILL MILLER, GARLAND ASH CRAFT, BILL DAVLY and ZACK KORNFIELDER and an individual names BAXTER who has been interviewed concerning BART.

The Cleveland Office, which has a copy of the Newark letter dated 9/22/51, is requested to attempt to interview the above individuals who have not been contacted, if deemed advisable, for all information they may have concerning BART.

The New York Office is advised that possibly some lead as to BART'S present location may be secured through a check of laundry marks in the event investigation or surveillances have developed the identities of the laundry used by BART.

DEN. #100-728

DETAILS:

AT CINCINNATI, OHIO

Mr. ROBERT D. LEIGHNINGER, Assistant Office Manager, Travelers Insurance Company, Cincinnati Branch, Carew Tower Building, advised that their records reflect that Mrs. C. S. BART, 263 Atkeier Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, occupation housewife, maintains an automobile accident insurance policy #MV-6812399, with that company, covering a 1941 Plymouth Special Deluxe Two Door Sedan, motor number P12-474359. Under the terms of this policy Mrs. BART carries a liability coverage on instant car, amounting to $10,000.00 and $20,000.00 bodily injury, $5000.00 property damage and a comprehensive clause covering fire, theft, etcetera, the annual premium amounting to $117.30. According to LEIGHNINGER, the billing date of this policy is July 9 of each year. He further stated that their records did not contain any additional information pertaining to the subject's wife and that any correspondence directed to Mrs. BART would have emanated from the company's contract agent handling her policy, Mrs. AL J. STRAUSS, whose office adjoins that of the Travelers Insurance Company.

In view of the similarity in CONSTANCE STRAUSS BART's maiden name, and that of Mrs. AL J. STRAUSS, Mr. LEIGHNINGER, under suitable pretext, determined that there was, in fact, no degree of relationship whatsoever between the two.

Subsequently, Mrs. AL J. STRAUSS advised that her records reflected that Mrs. C. S. BART, 263 Atkeier Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, had maintained the above policy on instant car under the name, CONSTANCE STRAUSS, from July 9, 1942, to August 3, 1946, at which time the name was changed to Mrs. C. S. BART. Mrs. STRAUSS stated these records reflected the following previous residences for subject's wife:

3336 Burnet Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio
1022 Dakin Street, Chicago, Illinois
700 Pine Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1415 North Delaware Street, Indianapolis,
Indiana
1601 North Delaware Street, Indianapolis,
Indiana

CIN. #100-728

Mrs. STRAUSS indicated that at the present time Mrs. BART's policy is in a delinquent status in view of the fact that the current year's premium payment (1951 to 1952), due on July 9, 1951, has not as yet been received. Mrs. STRAUSS said that in an attempt to clear up this discrepancy she had directed a notice to this effect to Mrs. BART shortly after September 1, 1951, but to date has received no reply. It is to be noted that this is probably the correspondence referred to in referenced letter. Based upon this assumption, Mrs. STRAUSS was queried as to whether this letter had been returned to her, indicating that the subject's wife was no longer residing at the Brooklyn address to which she replied in the negative. However, she stated in the event information should come to her attention, reflecting a change of address for Mrs. C. S. BART, she would notify the Cincinnati Office immediately.

Subsequently, Mr. LEIGHNINGER advised that in view of the delinquent status of this policy, he would direct a letter of cancellation to Mrs. BART, allowing her ten days in which to reinstate the policy, otherwise it would be dropped. Mr. LEIGHNINGER stated he would place a stop in his files in the event a reply is received from this letter and notify the Cincinnati Office.

On October 1, 1951, Mr. LEIGHNINGER advised that on that date the policy cancellation letter directed to Mrs. BART on September 25, 1951, had been returned as "Unclaimed - no forwarding address." However, LEIGHNINGER stated he would continue to maintain a stop on this policy and advise the Cincinnati Office of any information received by the Travelers Insurance Company, indicating CONSTANCE STRAUSS BART's present whereabouts.

Mr. CARL SCHLOTMAN, Manager, W. E. Lord Company, Insurance Brokers, advised that there was no record contained in the files of that company of an active or dead policy in the name of CONSTANCE STRAUSS or CONSTANCE STRAUSS BART. He stated that the W. E. Lord Company is the local representative for the Continental Assurance Company and a perusal of said company's records also failed to disclose a reference to subject or subject's wife.

It was ascertained from Mr. SCHLOTMAN that Mr. C. R. GOLDSMITH, who died in 1943 or 1944, had, prior to his death, been an agent for the W. E. Lord Company. He further stated that before joining that company, GOLDSMITH had been associated with the Cincinnati Office of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company and that for a period following the termination of his employment at Connecticut Mutual, he continued to handle certain policies for that company while in the employ of the W. E. Lord Company.

Mr. STANLEY FREDRICKS, Office Manager, Cincinnati Agency of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, Carew Tower Building, advised that CONSTANCE STRAUSS formerly held three thirty year endowment policies with that company but requested the surrender value on all three on June 20 and 23, 1950, while residing at 263 Atkins, Brooklyn, New York.

The company's records reflected the following regarding these policies:

Policy No.	Amount	Date of Policy	Payments Discontinued	Date Surrender Value Claimed
698166	$1000.00	1/30/30	1/30/41	6/20/50
598682	2500.00	4/27/27	4/27/41	6/20/50
764227	5000.00	2/3/32	2/3/41	6/23/50

It was further indicated that CONSTANCE STRAUSS BART changed the designation of beneficiary on these policies to her husband, PHILIP BART, on September 20, 1945. The only other residence for Mrs. BART, contained in these records, was that of 900 Pine Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

CIN. #100-728

Mr. FREDRICKS stated that in the event subject's wife had instituted a new policy at the time the surrender value on the above policies was claimed, such information would not appear in the records of the Cincinnati agency. He said that detailed information regarding the above and any subsequent policies taken out by Mrs. BART could be obtained from the home office of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, 140 Garden Street, Hartford, Connecticut.

Mr. A. EDGAR AUB, President, A. E. Aub and Company, Brokers, 1205 Union Trust Building, advised that the last contact had by his company with CONSTANCE STRAUSS was on July 10, 1939, at which time his firm repurchased securities previously sold to her. Mr. AUB stated that his records indicated that the last known address of the subject's wife was that of 1022 Dakin Street, Chicago, Illinois, in 1941, and that a communication directed to that address in November, 1949, was returned with the notation "no forwarding address." Mr. AUB related that his firm had served as investment brokers for CONSTANCE STRAUSS from 1927 through 1939 and in view of the length of this association, he was reluctant to make available his records for monitoring purposes, stating it was a long standing policy of the firm to treat such accounts as confidential. However, he indicated that the type of securities sold to CONSTANCE STRAUSS would have reached their date of maturity or else would have been sold by her in view of the period of time which has elapsed since the dates of purchase. In view of this, Mr. AUB stated it would be highly improbable to ascertain her financial status based upon the information contained in his records.

All Confidential Security Informants of the Cincinnati Field Division were contacted and were furnished with a photograph and description of subject PHILIP BART and a description of CONSTANCE STRAUSS BART, at which time they advised that the subject and his wife were unknown to them.

Mr. ROD RODEPOUCH, Manager, Colonial Finance Company, 69 East Gay Street, advised that the National Guarantee and Finance Company was absorbed by the Colonial Finance Company in 1942 and all the old records of this company were destroyed in 1946. Mr. RODEPOUCH searched the records of the Colonial Finance Company from 1945 to the present, but could find no record of any transaction with the subject or his wife, CONSTANCE BART, or under her alias, CONSTANCE STRAUSS.

Confidential Informant S - [] of known reliability, advised on November 16, 1951 that the "Daily Worker" is now very much under-staffed. Normally it has a complement of six responsible newspapermen, but of these only three are able to devote full time to the paper. The Informant said that there are of course other employees besides these men, but that they do not know too much about the newspaper field.

The six responsible newspapermen are ART SHIELDS, HARRY RAYMOND, JOE NORTH, ALAN MAX, MILTON HOWARD and GEORGE MORRIS.

For almost a year now ART SHIELDS has been assigned to Pittsburgh to cover the trials in that city. If these trials were taking place in New York, SHIELDS would be able to cover the trials as well as perform other assignments. Since he is in Pittsburgh, there are no other assignments he can cover. One man, therefore, is lost to the Worker, except for the Pittsburgh story.

SHIELDS at the present time is home on a brief vacation. The Informant said that he is about 58 years old and he is very tired. He has been a newspaperman all his life and the Informant said he could vouch for the fact that SHIELDS has done no other work in the party but newspaper work. He is used by the "Daily Worker" for all its "crummy" work, meaning jobs that have to be done, but mean a hardship for the person who has to do them. The Informant said that the Pittsburgh assignment is one of these jobs.

MEMO

HARRY RAYMOND at the present time is in Mount Sinai Hospital, New York City, with bleeding ulcers. For many years RAYMOND was the mainstay of news around New York City.

JOE NORTH, who is a good newspaperman, is temporarily lost to the paper. He has been let go for financial reasons apparently, and at the present time he is home trying to write a novel.

GEORGE MORRIS confines his work entirely to the labor field. MAX GORDON does some work for the paper, but also has party work to do.

The net result is that there are only two responsible newspapermen now getting the paper out, ALAN MAX and MILTON HORNBERG. In addition to the job of putting out the daily, they must also put out the Sunday "Worker", and on top of their newspaper assignments, they must also raise funds to finance the paper.

The Informant said that a good indication of the status of the paper is the amount of "boiler-plate" material appearing in it. Although the paper is only eight pages long, there is a tremendous amount of "earned stuff" appearing in it -- reprints, telegraph material, and the like. If an occasional headline does not fill a line, it is probably because either MAX or HORNBERG, who are responsible for the appearance of the paper, were too tired to care.

The Informant said that JOHN PITTMAN confines himself to his column, as does ABNER BENNY. The Informant understands that BENNY is also handling party work in Harlem.

The Informant has heard no reports about PHIL BART, but understands that HARRY LEVINE has taken over as business manager of the paper.

and report of SA [REDACTED] Los Angeles, dated 10-11-51.

A 30 day mail cover on HARRY BERAL, 419 No. Chicago, Los Angeles, California, placed with MICHAEL D. FANNING, Los Angeles Postmaster, provided record of several pieces of mail addressed to the HARRY BERAL household, bearing Los Angeles return addresses or postmarks. Nothing of significance was noted on this local mail to the BERAL home.

Record of mail addressed to the HARRY BERALS from out of the Los Angeles Field Division is set forth below. No leads are being set out to investigate the origin of the below mail, it being left to the New York Division, office of origin, to determine if such investigation may prove fruitful in this case.

Reported 10-13-51:

One letter for S. BERAL from Mrs. T. SCHEHR, 574 Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn, New York;

Inter. 100-4449-1186

Reported 10-15-51:

One item from S. FOX, 3812 West 14th Street, Chicago; postmarked Chicago, 10-13-51;

One item from Newsweek; postmarked Marion, Ohio.

A 30 day telegraph cover on the residence of the subject's brother, HARRY BERAL, which cover included the period of Jewish celebrations, October 10, 1951, as well as HARRY's birthday anniversary, October 12, 1951, provided no indication of communication according to JACK DEE, Assistant Manager, Western Union, Main Office, 741 South Flower Street, Los Angeles. DEE provided information to SE [REDACTED] on November 14, 1951.

SMITH ACT OF 1940

Re Minneapolis letter to Bureau dated October 25, 1951, and Philadelphia letter to Director dated November 13, 1951.

Mrs. MAURICE ADELSHEIN, 4655 Emerson Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota, advised that she first met CONSTANCE STRAUSS about 1933, at the home of Rabbi MINDA, at which time CONNIE was working for the Veterans Administration.

Mrs. ADELSHEIN said that she believed CONSTANCE was an only child and that she came originally from Cincinnati. She said that she knew STRAUSS only as a friend and could not furnish any information concerning her background and contacts.

She further advised that Miss STRAUSS appeared to be very bitter, perhaps due to the death of her father, but that she never expressed any pro-Communist tendencies, nor did she ever make any remarks against the United States Government.

Mrs. ADELSHEIN said she attempted to get in touch with CONSTANCE STRAUSS in April, 1941, by letter to Indianapolis. She explained that her daughter was graduating from Radcliffe College, and she wanted to advise CONSTANCE of that fact. However, Miss STRAUSS never answered this letter. She believed that she last saw STRAUSS sometime during the year 1937 and has not seen her since.

Mrs. ADELSHEIN does not believe that CONSTANCE STRAUSS was a close friend of Rabbi MINDA, and she knows of no close friends of STRAUSS in Minneapolis.

Miss MABLE GADBOIS, according to the 1948 Minneapolis City Directory, is Miss MABEL F. GADBOIS, who is employed as a social worker in psychology at the Veterans Administration. Her address is 4000 Northeast Main Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

It is believed that Miss GADBOIS and CONSTANCE STRAUSS became acquainted through their mutual employment at the Veterans Administration. Due to the

PHILIP BART, was.
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Re letter to the Director dated October 8, 1951.

Examination of Grand Rapids city directory, credit records, and of birth, marriage, death, and divorce records in the office of the Kent County Clerk, Grand Rapids, has failed to indicate that anyone with the name ELSINGER has lived in that area. It appeared, however, that a name with similar phonetic sound, ELZINGA, is a very common name among the Dutch residents of the area.

A search of all available records failed to disclose any reference to a VERA ELZINGA. However, it was found there was a marriage record of one RUTH ELZINGA and ALFRED GOETZ. Inasmuch as referenced letter indicated that one RUTH ELSINGER (probably phonetic) had married one ALFRED GATZ (probably phonetic), the probability arose that this marriage actually applied to the sister of VERA, the former wife of PHILIP BART.

This marriage record indicates that on April 22, 1922, ALFRED GOETZ, age 24, born in Austria, occupation - machinist, residence - Grand Rapids, son of MICHAEL GOETZ and PAULINE SINGER, no previous marriages, was united in marriage to RUTH ELZINGA, age 23, born in Zeeland, Michigan, occupation - teacher, daughter of M. E. ELZINGA and ALICE VEENSTRA, also no previous marriages. The witnesses were LESTER PALMERSTON and ELSIE PALMERSTON, both of North Park, Michigan.

The birth records of Kent County were checked for children of M. E. ELZINGA, whose full name was later found to be MARTIN E. ELZINGA, and ALICE VEENSTRA, ELZINGA. It was ascertained that the children of these parents born at Grand Rapids were as follows.

GERALDINE ELZINGA was born on November 27, 1902, at the family residence, 159 Clancy Street, Grand Rapids. The father, MARTIN E. ELZINGA, was described in this and subsequent birth records as a veterinary surgeon.

Letter to Director, FBI

Re: PHILIP BART was.
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Another child, ESTHER JEAN ELZINGA, was born September 13, 1908, at which time the family residence was at 207 LaGrave, Grand Rapids.

Another child, ALICE MARTINA ELZINGA, was born at Grand Rapids on November 26, 1910, at which time the family still lived at 207 LaGrave, Grand Rapids.

Another child, ROBERT ELZINGA, was born on December 9, 1915, at which time the family address was given as 347 LaGrave, Grand Rapids.

No record of the birth of VERA or RUTH ELZINGA appeared in the Kent County records. However, RUTH ELZINGA, as shown by her marriage license application, was born at Zeeland, which is in Ottawa County and as she was 23 at the date of her marriage in 1922, her birth was in the approximate year 1899.

From the above it would appear likely that the ELZINGA family moved from Zeeland to Grand Rapids sometime between 1899 and 1902 and it may be speculated that VERA ELZINGA was born in Ottawa County.

A search of marriage records showed that GERLADINE ELZINGA was married on May 1, 1929 to JOHANNES KLEYNENBERG.

No record of the marriage of any of the other children in this family appears in the Kent County records.

Examination of the Kent County death records indicates that the only member of the family on whom a death record has been filed is the father MARTIN ELZINGA who died at Grand Rapids, Michigan, on January 20, 1922. There is no record of the death of his wife ALICE ELZINGA.

Additional investigation will be conducted at Zeeland and Grand Rapids to endeavor to locate the birth record of VERA ELZINGA and to endeavor to trace her history and if possible to ascertain her present whereabouts.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING U. S. INCOME TAX RETURN

Who Must File.—If your income in 1951 was $600 or more, you must file an income tax return either on Employee's Optional Income Tax Return (Form 1040A) or on Form 1040. Copies of these forms may be obtained from the Collector of Internal Revenue, your employer, bank, or post office.

A single person with less than $600 income should file a return to get a refund if tax was withheld. A married person with income less than her (or his) own personal exemption(s) should always file a joint return with husband or wife to get the smaller tax or larger refund for the couple.

Filing on Form 1040A.—If your total income was less than $5,000 and consisted entirely of wages subject to income tax withholding and reported on Withholding Statements (Forms W-2), or of such wages and not more than $100 total of other wages, dividends, and interest, you may use Employee's Optional Income Tax Return (Form 1040A). The Collector will compute the tax and send you either a check for any refund due you or a bill for any amount you owe. He will determine your tax from the table provided by law which allows about 10 percent of your total income for charitable contributions, interest, taxes, casualty losses, medical expenses, and miscellaneous items.

Filing on Form 1040.—If your income does not meet the tests given in the preceding paragraph, or you had income from any other source, such as rents, annuities, etc., you must use Form 1040 and compute your own tax. Also, it will generally be to your advantage to file Form 1040 if your deductions amount to more than 10 percent of your income, or if you claim traveling or reimbursed expenses.

Joint Returns of Married Couples.—Husband and wife must use Form 1040A if their combined income was less than $5,000 and consisted entirely of wages subject to income tax withholding and reported on Withholding Statements (Forms W-2), or of such wages and not more than $100 total of other wages, dividends, and interest.

To assure any benefits of the split-income provisions, a married couple should file a joint income tax return. A joint return on Form 1040A never results in more tax than separate returns because the tax is computed by the Collector on the combined incomes or on the separate incomes, whichever results in the smaller tax or larger refund for the couple.

Employee Having Two Employers During Year.—If an aggregate of more than $54 of F. I. C. A. employee's tax was withheld during 1951 because you worked for two or more employers, claim the excess over $54 as Federal income tax withheld on your return for 1951.

I. PHYSICAL SURVEILLANCES

In an effort to locate BART, numerous physical surveillances were conducted at the homes of various Communist Party functionaries, Communist Party members, Communist Party sympathizers, and other individuals whom it was believed might also possibly harbor a missing Communist Party functionary. These surveillances were both fixed, mobile and spot surveillances.

The following is a composite list of physical surveillances conducted in an effort to locate BART. The letter "S" following the date of a surveillance signifies a spot surveillance.

This surveillance resulted from information furnished by Confidential Informant T-2 to the effect that FRANK BYRD, Communist Party waterfront functionary in New York City, was to meet in Philadelphia with JACK BANKS, President, International Longshoremen's Association, Local 1291, Philadelphia; SAMUEL KOVNAT, Communist Party waterfront contact, Philadelphia; and EDWARD STRONG, Chairman, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware. It was believed that possibly BART, who was formerly a Philadelphia Communist Party functionary, might appear in connection with these meetings.

While BYRD was to meet with BANKS at 6:00 PM on August 20, 1951, in order to have sufficient coverage, the surveillance was begun at 11:00 AM on August 20, 1951. Agents were stationed at the 30th Street, North Philadelphia and Broad Street Pennsylvania Railroad stations, as well as at the residence of BANKS and KOVNAT where fixed plants were also maintained.

BYRD met with KOVNAT and BANKS and contacted

II NEIGHBORHOOD INVESTIGATIONS

Neighborhood investigations were conducted in the vicinities of the homes of Communist Party functionaries, Communist Party members and sympathizers, and others in whose homes it was believed that BART might possibly be given refuge.

BART's photograph, as well as those of functionaries missing from Philadelphia, were displayed during these neighborhood investigations and cooperative individuals were alerted to notify the Philadelphia Office if anyone resembling BART or other missing functionaries was observed by them.

The neighborhood investigations were negative, except in those instances where information furnished is set forth.

at the same address upon observing the photograph of BART stated that he believed he had seen BART in Philadelphia possibly at the Horn & Hardart Restaurant located between Walnut and Locust Streets or in the Horn & Hardart Restaurant at 15th and Market Streets. It was also his opinion that he may have observed BART in Shellenberger's Candy Store, corner of Juniper and Market Streets in the basement [REDACTED] explained that he frequently ate his dinner at the above establishments and if he had seen BART it was probably while eating dinner [REDACTED] believed he had seen BART approximately a month prior to the date he was contacted

III INFORMANT COVERAGE

Informants of the Philadelphia Office were alerted and advised specifically of the FBI's interest in locating the missing Philadelphia functionaries and also BART. Specific assignments in the way of contacts were given to the various informants and regular periodic contacts were made with them. The following contacts were made with the informants, none of whom could furnish any pertinent information leading to BART's location:

This informant visited New York City during the week BART disappeared, on August 15, 1951, remaining over the following week-end. During his stay he conducted four physical surveillances of BART's Brooklyn address and the surrounding neighborhood in the hope of meeting either of the BARTS or SELMA WEISS who was living with them, but with no success. He did not go directly to the address for fear of arousing the suspicion of BART in the event he were home.

IV MISCELLANEOUS

SA ROBERT V. HANCOCK on September 12, 1951 made unsuccessful efforts to locate [redacted] who was known to have been [redacted] by the BARTS when they resided in Philadelphia, for any information she may possess concerning BART's whereabouts..

When contacted under a pretext, a [redacted] Street, advised that [redacted] was believed to be residing in the vicinity of 25th Street and Grays Ferry Avenue. Records of the Philadelphia Post Office indicated that [redacted] most recent address was [redacted]. However, inquiries at that address failed to locate her. Records of the Philadelphia Police Department indicate that [redacted] had been arrested on June 18, 1947 for investigation and examination. She was discharged on June 26, 1947.

b7c

On September 12, 1951, SA ROBERT V. HANCOCK checked the following hospitals with negative results for an admission record for BART inasmuch as information received during BART's period of residence in Philadelphia indicated that he may have contemplated entering one of them for treatment:

Jefferson Hospital, 10th Street below Chestnut Street
Mt. Sinai Hospital, 1429 South 5th Street
Kensington Hospital, 136 West Diamond Street

On September 21, 1951, October 2, 4 and 5, 1951, SA ALLAN M. OPPEN displayed photographs of BART and other missing Communist functionaries to personnel in the following restaurants which BART was known to have frequented when he resided in Philadelphia. Arrangements were made whereby the Philadelphia Office would be notified in the event BART was seen at any of the restaurants.

Harvey House, 224 S. Broad Street
Ewart's Cafeteria, 1422 Chestnut Street
Harmony House, 15th and Locust Streets
Dave's Tavern, 2000 Market Street
Holland's Cafeteria, 114-15 N. 19th Street

City Grill, 1432 Market Street
Bain's Cafeteria, 1617 Chestnut Street
Charlie & Bill's Delicatessen, Broad and Spruce Streets
Brown's Bar and Grill, Broad and Race Streets
Majestic Bar and Grill, Broad Street and Girard Avenue
Broad & Girard Pharmacy, Broad Street and Girard Avenue
Postal Card Restaurant, 1504 South Street

Photographs were also displayed to special officers of the Horn and Hardart Restaurants in Philadelphia. These officers cover specific restaurants of the chain throughout Philadelphia from day to day and are in a position to observe patrons of the restaurants.

On August 15, 16 and 17, 1951, SAs THOMAS E. HUNT, ELMER E. SUSSMAN and HARRY E. MORRIS, contacted automobile rental agencies in Philadelphia in an attempt to determine whether BART or any of the missing Communists from Philadelphia had rented automobiles. The inquiries were negative with respect to BART.

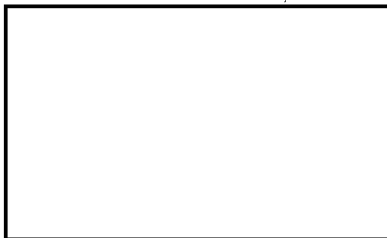

Inasmuch as a possible identification was made of one of the missing Philadelphia functionaries at the Yellow Cab garage, 325 South 23rd Street, on October 2, 1951, Mr. WILLIAM D. BARNES, Superintendent of Cabulances, Yellow Cab Garage, was contacted by SA EDWARD J. FEIGHAN on October 17, 1951, at which time he failed to identify a photograph of BART displayed to him.

During the period of this report, examinations were made of the bank account maintained in the name of the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware at the Real Estate Trust Company, 15th and Sansom Streets, Philadelphia, for the purpose of developing leads which might possibly lead to the location of BART and missing functionaries from Philadelphia, but with negative results.

On August 13, 1951, SA HOWARD A. SEARL made arrangements with Postal Inspector CYRIL HANAOE at the 30th Street Post Office, Philadelphia, to make available to agents of the Philadelphia Office for inspection mail picked up at letter boxes in the immediate vicinity of the homes of the following persons, who were considered to be possible couriers or whose homes were believed to be possible mail drops for the Communist Party:

PH 100-22157

JOHN HECHTMAN
3215 W. Dakota Street
Philadelphia, Pa.

b6
b7C

FRANCES GABOW
3222 Ridge Avenue
Philadelphia, Pa.

WALTER LOWENFELS
4510 Regent Street
Philadelphia, Pa.

In connection with these arrangements, agents were designated to be at the Office of the Postal Inspector at special daily intervals when mail deliveries would be received in order that the inspection would not delay handling of the mail.

This stop was subsequently expanded to include mail picked up from boxes in the vicinity of the home of BENJAMIN WEISS at 5266 Parkside Avenue, Philadelphia Communist Party functionary whose whereabouts is unknown.

On August 20, 1951, there was included in the mail picked up at the box at the southwest corner of Lindenwood and Parkside Avenues, near the WEISS home, a postcard addressed to Mrs. S. BLOCH, 883 48th Street, Brooklyn 20, New York, written in a "foreign language". Because it was known that SELMA WEISS, sister of BENJAMIN WEISS, was last known to be living with BART and his wife, CONSTANCE, a teletype lead was set out to identify the recipient of this card. Agents of the New York Office conducted a neighborhood investigation which failed to locate BART.
